1. It was planned to effect a physical separation of the All-German section, under [redacted] (fnu), and the East German Section, under Tsiganov (fnu), of the [redacted] Rundschau toward the end of December.
2. It is said that Tsiganov is also connected with the editorial work of a Russian-language paper for Soviet military personnel. There are rumors that the publishing or at least printing of this military publication will be carried out in the [redacted] Rundschau offices. If Tsiganov is fully occupied with this work, it is possible that [redacted] will be the Soviet editor of the East German section of the [redacted] Rundschau. However, nothing has been observed that would indicate that a Russian-language paper is actually being prepared or printed in the [redacted] Rundschau's printing shop.
3. The rumors about the possible transfer of the [redacted] Rundschau to German jurisdiction have subsided.

1. It was planned to effect a physical separation of the All-German section, under Nikolayev (fnu), and the East German Section, under Tsiganov (fnu), of the Tägliche Rundschau toward the end of December.
2. It is said that Tsiganov is also connected with the editorial work of a Russian-language paper for Soviet military personnel. There are rumors that the publishing or at least the editing of this military publication will be carried out in the Tägliche Rundschau offices. If Tsiganov is fully occupied with this work, it is possible that Mel'nikov will be the Soviet editor of the East German section of the Tägliche Rundschau. However, nothing has been observed that would indicate that a Russian-language paper is actually being prepared or printed in the Tägliche Rundschau's printing shop.
3. The rumors about the possible transfer of the Tägliche Rundschau to German jurisdiction have subsided.
